Manistee County Master Plan Input Sessions

MANISTEE, MI – The Manistee County Planning Commission and Networks Northwest will host three public input sessions to gather input on the County's Master Plan update. This is an exciting opportunity to let the County's leadership know what you think about a variety of topics including transportation, public spaces, public safety, and much more. The sessions will take place April 27 in Kaleva, May 15 in Pleasanton Township, and June 10 in Manistee. Please visit nwm.org/manistee2024 for more information about the input sessions and to take an online Master Plan survey.
